August 12, 2016

Dear Friend,

I am pleased to advise you of my Western New York Service Academy Day. Students who are considering applying to a Service Academy or R.O.T.C. program, their parents, and guidance counselors are invited to attend the Western New York Service Academy Day and meet representatives from the U.S. Military Academy (West Point), U.S. Naval Academy (Annapolis), U.S. Air Force Academy, U.S. Coast Guard Academy, U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, as well as Army, Navy, and Air Force R.O.T.C.

This event is an opportunity to learn about the unique academic and career opportunities offered through our nation's service academies. Students who attend the service academies graduate with a top-tier education, strong leadership experience, and a commission as an officer. Moreover, they will join a proud tradition of leadership and selfless service to our nation. A panel of Academy and R.O.T.C. representatives will provide an overview of the admission process, daily life of a cadet/midshipman, and various paths to officership. Representatives will be available after the panel to discuss and answer questions from students, parents, and faculty.

Attached please find our Service Academy Day flyer with further details and information. This event will take place at Canisius College on Wednesday, September 28, 2016 at 6:30 PM in the Regis Room on the second floor of the Student Center. Feel free to share this with students, parents, or school administrators who may be interested in attending. Please R.S.V.P. to Kapila_Kapoor@gillibrand.senate.gov. If you should have any questions about the nomination process or federal service academies in general, please contact my Veterans and Military Affairs Constituent Liaison at (212) 688-6262.

Sincerely,

Kirsten Gillibrand
United States Senator
